

Program of the International Restorative Justice Week in Tempio Pausania

2018 Edition

• November 21st 2018: First steps of the Restorative Service within the community of Tempio Pausania and PLUS municipalities:

a) Meeting with high school students of Dettori - De Andrè - Istituto Pes's

The Restorative Team presents to high school classes the project proposed by the chair of social and juridical psychology (prof. Patrizia Patrizi), Department of Humanistic and Social Studies of the University of Sassari, in collaboration with PLUS municipalities of Tempio Pausania. The Team will build workshops following the Restorative practices, to encourage a peaceful management of conflict and an active participation in establishing relational communities. The journey will involve students and teachers.

b) Meetings with social workers

Training meeting addressed to Social Services of Tempio Pausania and PLUS municipalities under the Restorative Justice's paradigm. The aim is to ease the sharing of the intervention model of Servizio Riparativo di counseling psicologico" (Restorative Service of psychological counseling) in agreement with the needs and resources of different territories.

• November 27th-28th 2018: Department of Humanistic and Social Studies at the University of Sassari

Brunilda Pali (EFRJ Board member, postdoc researcher in the Leuven Institute of Criminology, co-editor of Restoring Justice and Security in Intercultural Europe e Critical Restorative Justice), will be the guest visiting professor of social psychology and restorative practices class (prof. Patrizia Patrizi). The class will screen and discuss the films launched by EFRJ on the occasion of the RJW2018 (Electra meets Clytemnestra, Expanding the Restorative Imagination e The Encounter).

• November 29th 2018: IX Community Restorative Conference inside the "P. Pittalis" Correctional Institute in Nuchis (TP)

The IX Community Restorative Conference will take place in the Nuchis Correctional Institute's conference room, in the presence of the prisoners and the representatives of local authorities, citizens, university students, volunteers, teachers, social workers, educators, judicial authority, lawyers, judges who work together for the development of an inclusive and supportive community. Brunilda Pali will attend the event and present the RJ's programs on an international level. The Restorative Conference has the intent to share one of the most qualified results of our journey: the launch of the Servizio Riparativo di counseling psicologico" (Restorative Service of psychological counseling).
